

OCF	VEMENT	SPECIMEN
GCSE Religious S Judaism 2	Studies (World Religions)	B580
Specimen	Paper
Candidates ar Additional ma	aswer on the question paper. aterials: none	Time: 1 hour
Candidate Forename		Candidate Surname
Centre Number		Candidate Number

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- Write your name in capital letters, your Centre Number and Candidate Number in the boxes above.
- Use black ink only.
- Read each question carefully and make sure you know what you have to do before starting your answer.
- Answer any TWO questions; you must answer all parts (a-c) of the two questions that you choose.
- Do not write in the bar codes.
- Do not write outside the box bordering each page.
- Write your answer to each question in the space provided.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

- The number of marks for each question is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.
- The total number of marks for this paper is 48.
- Quality of written communication is assessed throughout the paper
- Should you need more space to write your answers there is an extra page at the end of the paper.
- If you need to use this extra page you must number your answers clearly.

This document consists of 8 printed pages.

SP (SLM) T12103 © OCR 2008 [QAN number] OCR is an exempt Charity [Turn over

Answer TWO questions (a, b and c parts should be an		Answer TWO questions (a, b and c parts should be answered for each question).
1	(a)	Describe kashrut as it is applied to food.
		[6]
	(b)	Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community.
	(b)

c)	'Jewish food laws are too complicated.'
	Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer [12]
	Total (241

Total [24]

[Turn over

(a)	Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh.
(b)	Explain the importance of the Talmud for Jews.
(b)	Explain the importance of the Talmud for Jews.
(b)	Explain the importance of the Talmud for Jews.
(b)	Explain the importance of the Talmud for Jews.
(b)

Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer	l
[1	12]

Total [24]

[Turn over

3	(a)	Describe the main features of a synagogue
		[6]
	(b)	Explain why daily prayer is important for a Jew.
	(/
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

;)	Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer [12]

Total [24]

Paper Total [48]

Extra Answer Space

Clearly label which question you are answering.

OXFORD CAMBRIDGE AND RSA EXAMINATIONS GCSE

RELIGIOUS STUDIES (WORLD RELIGIONS) J620

Unit B580: Judaism 2

Specimen Mark Scheme

The maximum mark for this paper is 48.

1(a) Describe kashrut as it is applied to food. Answers may describe various aspects of Kashrut, including: • the process of shechitah; • the laws for deciding on which animals are considered fit to eat; • laws about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and manufactured products; • the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. 1(b) Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: • the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; • practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; • some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; • how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; • the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: • the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; • some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; • it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; • moral laws are more important than ritual laws; • the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; • being the chosen people is a great responsibility; • food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. 1(2) Question Total 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to shape the Jewish faith.	Question Number Answer		Max Mark
Answers may describe various aspects of Kashrut, including: the process of shechitah; the laws for deciding on which animals are considered fit to eat; laws about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and manufactured products; the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. [6] Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; if may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total Pascribe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to	1(a)	Describe kashrut as it is applied to food the process of shechitah; the laws for deciding on which animals are considered fit to eat; laws about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and manufactured products; the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. I(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Question Total Question Total Pascribe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to	Ι(α)
the laws for deciding on which animals are considered fit to eat; laws about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and manufactured products; the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; the positive aspects of being chosen by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. 121 Question Total 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		·
Idust about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and manufactured products; the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. It division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat. Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. I(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Question Total 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		•
1(b) Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community. Answers may explain: • the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; • practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; • some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; • how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; • the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: • the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; • some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; • it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; • moral laws are more important than ritual laws; • the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; • being the chosen people is a great responsibility; • food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to	 laws about other foods such as fish, poultry, eggs, vegetables and
Answers may explain: the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. 1(c) Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; if may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. 124] Question Total 24a Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; inportant stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to be best the fellic fellic.		the division of milk and meat and the removal of blood from meat.	[6]
the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant; practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to heare the levith feith.	1(b)	Explain how the Jewish food laws affect the Jewish community.
practical implications for the Jews, such as the separation of milk and meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; if may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		Answers may explain:
meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal products; some of the practical issues that might arise from the laws, including the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		 the origins of the food laws in the Torah as part of the covenant;
the need to search for a hechsher on some products; how Jews are seeking holiness in their obedience; the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. [6] 1(c) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		meat equipment and allowing time to elapse after eating animal	• the positive aspects of being 'chosen' by G-d, whilst considering how the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. (5) 'Jewish food laws are too complicated.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to the mitzvot may make it harder to 'fit in'. (5) (1) (1) (2) (1) (2) (3) (3) (3) (3) (4) (5) (5) (5) (5) (5) (5) (6) (5) (6) (6
Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: • the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; • some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; • it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; • moral laws are more important than ritual laws; • the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; • being the chosen people is a great responsibility; • food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to			[6]
Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer Answers may include: • the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; • some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; • it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; • moral laws are more important than ritual laws; • the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; • being the chosen people is a great responsibility; • food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to	1(c)	'Jewish food laws are too complicated.'
the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Total Question Total [24]		Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism
the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; some Progressive Jews do not follow all aspects of kashrut in relation to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Total Question Total [24]		Answers may include:
to food; it may not always be possible to locate kosher products; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		 the inconvenience of the laws may isolate Jews in society; moral laws are more important than ritual laws; the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. [12] Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to the importance of tradition should not be underestimated; being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Question Total [24]		 it may not always be possible to locate kosher products;
being the chosen people is a great responsibility; food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		 moral laws are more important than ritual laws;
		 the importance of tradition should not be underestimated;
Question Total [24] 2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		being the chosen people is a great responsibility;
2(a) Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh. Candidates might describe: • the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; • break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); • important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to above the Jovich faith.		 food contributes to the distinctiveness of the religion. 	[12]
Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to		Question Total	[24]
Candidates might describe: the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible; break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to above the Javich faith. 	2(a)	Describe what Jews mean by the Tenakh.
 break it down into Torah (law), Neviim (prophets) and Ketuvim (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to above the Jovich faith. 		Candidates might describe:
 (writings); important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to 		the Tenakh as the Hebrew Bible;
important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to shape the Javieb faith.		i i i important stories and teachings found in the Bible that have helped to	[6]

Question Number	Answer
2(b)
	Candidates may explain:
	 what the Talmud is, and how it is viewed as the definitive collection of the Oral Law;
	how it was created
	 how it might be used to solve problems of interpretation and understanding the Written Torah.
	 examples of its impact on everyday Jewish life, such as dietary laws or Bar Mitzvah. 	[6]
2(c)	'The Tenakh is out of date.'
2(0)	Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer	•
	Candidates may include:
	 the Tenakh will always have meaning for the Jews as it is seen as inspired by G-d;
	that without the Tenakh the faith of Judaism would not exist;
	 the years that have passed since that time have led to parts becoming outdated or corrupted;
	the different perspectives of orthodox and progressive Jews.	[12]
	Question Total	[24]
3(a)	Describe the main features of a synagogue
	Candidates might describe:
	• the Ark;
	• scrolls;
	Ner Tamid; Director
	Bimah;decalogue.
	 less obvious features like the prayers for the royal family and state of Israel, or the yahrzeit board.
	differences between orthodox and progressive, highlighting features like the gallery or direction of the Bimah.	[6]
3(b)	Explain why daily prayer is important for a Jew
, ,	Candidates might explain:
	 that Jews believe in a personal relationship with G-d, and that prayer is important for praising G-d and when in need;
	daily prayer recalling the Temple;
	the importance of ritual dress;
	specific prayers like the Shema;
	the way that prayer might be enhanced by actions, attending synagogue or facing Jerusalem.	[6]

Question Answer Number		Max Mark
3(c)	'A Jewish community does not need a synagogue.' Discuss this statement. You should include different, supported points of view and a personal viewpoint. You must refer to Judaism in your answer
	Answers may include:
	the claim that the synagogue is the place where the Torah is heard, and refer to the need for communal worship;
	it is not essential;
	Jews may worship privately and read the Chumash at home.	[12]
	Question Total	[24]
	Paper Total	[48]

Assessment Objectives Grid (includes QWC)

Question	AO1	AO2	Total
1(a)	6		6
1(b)	6		6
1(c)		12	12
2(a)	6		6
2(b)	6		6
2(c)		12	12
3(a)	6		6
3(b)	6		6
3(c)		12	12
Totals	24	24	48

BLANK PAGE

